

6th IEEE CASS Rio Grande do Sul Workshop

Porto Alegre, Brasil

Instituto de Informática, UFRGS

October 13-14, 2016

CALL FOR POSTERS

The IEEE Circuits and Systems Workshop will be held for the sixth time in Porto Alegre, on October 13-14, Thursday and Friday. It is an event intended for academic and industrial exchange between local and foreign researchers. The speakers are renowned researchers from institutions with significant work in the field of microelectronics. The event will last for two days and the programming will consist of a series of invited tutorials and poster sessions. The Workshop location is the Instituto de Informática of the Universidade Federal do Rio do Grande do Sul.

Some of the invited speakers are:

Gyorgy Suto - Intel (USA)

Thierry Taris - IMS - University of Bordeaux (France)

Michael Hübner - University of Bochum (Germany)

Julius Georgiou - University of Cyprus (Cyprus)

The workshop includes two poster sessions. The program will cover topics on Circuits and Systems, including but not limited to Analog and Digital Circuits, Mixed-Mode Circuits, Biomedical Electronics, Communication/RF Circuits, Wireless Sensor Networks, Nanoelectronics, Electronic Design Automation, VLSI Systems and Applications, FPGA Design and Applications, Circuit Testing, and Fault Tolerant Circuits.

The authors must submit an A4 pdf with a copy of the proposed poster. The proceedings will be published in pdf as a collection of accepted posters.

More information about poster guidelines are available at the event website.
